Highland rallied from a seven-point deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to score a 31-24 win over Hudson at Hudson Memorial Stadium.

Casey Myser scored the decisive touchdowns, tying the score on a 10-yard TD run with 6:29 left and plunging in the winning score from 4 yards out with a 1:04 left.

After dealing with a skin infection that hospitalized him, Myser was not cleared to play until Friday after missing the last two weeks of practice. He still finished with 144 yards and two touchdowns on 29 carries.

Highland quarterback Dylan Borla also returned after missing most of last year with a knee injury. Borla went 12-of-17 passing for 147 yards, one TD and one interception. Evan Foust was Borla's favorite target with nine catches for 112 yards and a score.

Hudson took the lead late in third quarter after the game's only turnover.

After Brennan Funyak ran in a 6-yard TD, safety John Ploskunak picked off Borla. One play later, Hudson running back Reno Ferri took a sweep 33 yards for a score. Ferri finished with 97 yards on 10 rushes.

In his first start as Hudson's quarterback, Nathan Judy went 12-of-20 passing for 154 yards and a 28-yard TD pass to Mark Salem in the second quarter.
