Who will win: Woodridge 49-3

Canton McKinley (6-1, 4-0) at Lake (4-3, 2-1)

What to watch: McKinley enters its penultimate Federal League game of 2026 looking to continue its conference dominance, while Lake tries to snap a two-game slide and keep its league title hopes alive. ... The Bulldogs have won at least a share of four consecutive Federal League championships. Their four league wins this season have come by 32.3 points on average. They have won 10 straight Federal League games, 25 of their last 28 and 50 of their last 57. ... This game features two of the better defenses in the area.

McKinley has posted three shutouts and allowed 50 total points. Lake hadn't allowed more than 20 points in a game before last week's 37-20 loss at Jackson. ... Senior LB Antonio Stevens leads McKinley's defense with 49 tackles. Senior DE Amare Mitchell, a Ball State recruit, has team highs of nine TFLs and three sacks. He also has two interceptions. ... Lake senior Ty DeGeorge has gained 992 yards from scrimmage — 678 rushing and 314 receiving. He's scored 15 touchdowns, one of them a 95-yard pick six. ... DeGeorge has two interceptions this season, and teammate Mitch Wise has four, which ties for the area lead. ... McKinley junior RB Kyelin West is on quite the tear over the last four games. He has 712 rushing yards and 15 total touchdowns in that span. West ran for 162 yards and three touchdowns last week in a 35-7 win over Hoover. Senior WR Darius Hill caught nine passes for 162 yards and a TD. Hill, who has three consecutive 100-yard receiving games, became McKinley's career receptions leader. He now has 109. ...

McKinley junior QB Braylon Crook continues to impress. He has thrown for 1,311 yards (second in the league) while only being intercepted twice in 115 attempts. ... One of the strengths of Lake's team is its defensive line. Junior DE Simon Humphrey has made a tremendous impact with team highs of 9.5 TFLs and four sacks. ... The Blue Streaks struggled with the depth of Jackson last week and seemed to wear down in the fourth quarter. They'll face a similar challenge this week with McKinley, which, like Jackson, does not have many two-way players. Lake coach Dan DeGeorge, in his 14th year, considered the overall challenge of the Bulldogs and offered this opinion: "It might be one of the better McKinley teams we've faced, to be honest with you." ... McKinley has won 11 straight games against Lake and leads the all-time series 18-4.

Who will win: McKinley 31-13

Green (4-3) at Louisville (5-2)

What to watch: This is an important game for playoff positioning in Division II's Region

7. The Leopards, winners of four of their last five games, are sixth in the region. The Bulldogs are ninth. ... The independent Leopards are in a stretch of four Federal League opponents in five games. They had lost 11 straight and 21 of their last 22 games against Fed teams before knocking off Lake 16-15 in Week 6. Before that, their last win over a Federal League team came in Week 7 of the 2022 season when they beat Green 27-23. ... These two teams go about their business differently. Green has passed for 1,234 yards and rushed for 830. Louisville has passed for 763 yards and rushed for 1,524. ... Running behind a line featuring UConn commit Aden Norris (6-8, 320) and D1 prospect Trevor Burick (6-3, 285), Louisville junior Lucas Neff has rushed for 729 yards at 6.1 a carry and five touchdowns. Junior QB Cody Zahler has thrown for 763 yards, two touchdowns and five interceptions while running for 350 yards and a team-high eight TDs. ... Green senior QB Chase Herbert threw TD passes to three different receivers last week. He has 11 touchdown passes and just one interception this season and is very dangerous when extending plays with his legs. WRs Aiden Rice and Reed Liberatore have combined for 42 receptions for 806 yards and eight touchdowns for the Bulldogs. Liberatore also has TDs on interception and kickoff returns. ... Senior LB Colton Dougherty is a three-year starter and leads the Louisville defense with 63 tackles and nine TFLs. Junior DL Jake Baker has four sacks. Junior DB Xavier Berdella has two interceptions. ... Senior LB Luke Schaal and Senior DL Clayton Washington each had three TFLs last week for Green. Schaal is by far the Bulldogs' leading tackler with 69. Senior DB Jayden Hall picked off his team-best third pass of the season. ... This is the sixth consecutive year Green and Louisville have met, with the Bulldogs winning four of the five previous matchups, including 27-14 last year. Green leads the all-time series 4-3.

Who will win: Green 27-23

Triway (6-1, 3-1) at Manchester (4-3, 4-0)

What to watch: The game of the week in the Principals Athletic Conference. A win pushes Manchester into a first-place tie with Orrville, which is playing outside the conference this week. A Triway win tightens things up atop the conference. ... The Panthers have won four straight after opening the season against some tough nonconference competition. They faced their first true PAC-7 challenge last week and gutted out a 27-21 win over Fairless. ... Manchester running back Phil Partin is a conference player of the year candidate. He averages 7.6 yards a carry and has rushed for 1,304 yards and 16 touchdowns. In the win over Fairless, Partin rushed for a school-record 371 yards and three touchdowns. It was his second straight 300-yard rushing game against the Falcons. ... Triway is a team that can light up a scoreboard. The Titans erupted for a season-high 62 points last week against Canton South and gain almost 400 total yards a game.

Who will win: Triway 35-28

Northwest (6-1, 2-1) at Tuslaw (2-5, 0-3)

What to watch: Northwest lost control of its destiny in the Principals Athletic Conference race last week when it lost to Orrville, but coach John DeMarco's team still has a lot to play for, starting with this week's game with Route 93 neighbor Tuslaw. Winning out will land Northwest a playoff berth in Division IV, Region 13. ... The inability to finish drives cost Northwest in a 28-19 loss to Orrville. Settling for field goals left some points on the field. Northwest also came up empty on other trips across the 50-yard line. ... The passing game was a bright spot last week. Brayden Venables threw for 209 yards and a touchdown. He went in with 393 passing yards and six TDs. ... Venables, Jakob Garber and Conner Stephenson have combined for 1,233 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns this season. Stephenson also leads the defense with 75 tackles, including five sacks. ... Tuslaw will try to stop a four-game losing streak and beat Northwest for the first time since 2018. The four-game slide has come against teams with a combined record of 23-5. ... Taking unbeaten Toronto to overtime last week was a promising sign for the Mustangs. They were shut out by a combined score of 100-0 the previous two weeks. ... Gage Fink rushed for a game-high 122 yards and three touchdowns against Toronto. He leads the Mustangs in rushing with 392 yards and six TDs.
