

Highland 32, Hudson 0: Hornets too much for Explorers on both sides of ball in easy win

Led by Evan Foust (three tackles for loss, two third down stops, forced fumbles) and a defense that forced two interceptions, Highland rolled to a shutout win over Hudson.

Casey Myser did Myser things, running for 100 yards and two TDs on 18 carries for coach Mike Gibbons. Lucas Gerding added 42 yards and a TD on six carries and Grady Gibb was 4-of-8 passing with an interception for the Hornets (2-0).

Mired by four turnovers, the Explorers (1-1) didn't find much of an answer on offense.

Dan Miller, Luckas Grillis and Jameson Gordon each had a sack and Gordon and Nick Dobkowski had interceptions for the Hornets.

"We made that the statement that no matter what we're going to be here," Foust said. "We're ready to play every single game and we're going to get better every game and every week." Hudson gained just 195 yards on 51 plays. Reno Ferri (12 carries, 34 yards, two catches, 33 yards) led the way.
